Description

Beautiful antique Louis Empire style fireplace made of white Carrara marble from the end of the 19th century. This fireplace is called "à pieds de lions" in reference to its lion paws which end its jambs in solid consoles. In addition, it will have a custom-made fire plate of modern manufacture in plain Carrara marble or with black marble cabochons. It is currently being cleaned and restored in our workshops and will be available soon at our showroom.
