Description

Set of 4 stained glass windows painted in grisaille, enamels and silver yellows on cathedral glass in the neo-Gothic style depicting cabaret scenes surrounded by a red net. Original wooden frame. Signed E.HAUSSAIRE PARIS LILLEOriginally from Reims, the Haussaire family is made up of sculptors, carpenters but above all master glassmakers including François (1851-1924) and Louis-Ernest. Ernest founded a workshop in Lille, "Haussaire frères" in 1892, while his brother François opened a Parisian workshop on rue Bonaparte. Ernest signed these panels; he created the stained glass windows for most of the private houses of this period and the stained glass windows for many religious buildings in the Lille region. The stained glass windows are in two parts with a transom: Total
