Belj" (stylized and located in the bottom right). This could indicate a mid-century European or Mediterranean artist, though further provenance research is advised for confirmation.Artist Details The artist is not definitively identified, but the style and framing suggest a mid-century Southern European origin--possibly French, Spanish, or Italian. It may be attributed to a regional artist active in the 1950s-1970s, focusing on Mediterranean coastal life and vegetation.Frame Condition Yes, the painting is presented in a classic vintage silver-toned wooden frame with linen slip. The frame is in very good vintage condition, with minor wear consistent with age, enhancing the painting's authentic period feel. The inner linen border provides elegant contrast and draws the eye toward the vivid coastal scene.
