Description

Small coffee pot or very large covered creamer in the Louis XVI style. Solid silver jug of the second title (800%), stylistically still belonging entirely to the Louis XVI style. The guarantee hallmarks are those of the Dunkirk office for the period 1819-1838. Lid, body and foot are hallmarked. On each part there is a diamond-shaped master silversmith's hallmark in which two capital letters ID appear. A small Belgian census hallmark tells us that the jug must have passed through the inspection in Belgium between 1838 and 1868. It weighs 370 grams
