Description

Here is a pair of elegant and very well-made consoles that can be purchased together or separately (2650EUR / piece). This is a Belgian work circa 1980. The manufacturing, probably custom-made, is of very good quality and the design very neat. The structure is in solid wood coated with a qualitative lacquer with a satin appearance, in artichoke green gray color. They are garnished with a two-layer shelf in stepped blue stone from Hainaut (Belgium) polished satin in an impeccable condition. The two pieces of furniture, as a whole, are really very well preserved. The shelves are perfect. The legs are perfectly adjusted and structurally solid as in their origin. The superb lacquer shows some (very few) traces of functional wear at the base, practically undetectable. Here is a refined set,
