Description

Louis XV Two-Body Buffet in Walnut, Burgundy. Beautiful two-body buffet in walnut from the Louis XV period, end of the 18th century beginning of the 19th century. It has a front with a recess between the lower body and the upper one. It opens with 4 doors and two drawers on the front. It is furnished with iron handles, lace pins and original fittings. Beautiful moldings of the doors. The lower crosspieces are scalloped and this piece of furniture rests on Louis XV shell feet. Beautiful sculptures on the crosspieces. Heavily molded cornice. Very beautiful patina of the walnut. When you open the doors of the upper body, you find two interior drawers and shelves forming a dresser fitted out in the 19th century. Some restorations of use and maintenance. A very beautiful buffet, probably
