

Charles X Period Side Table / Empty Pocket Table In Rosewood And Light Wood Marquetry

750 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Prévoir restauration

Material : Rosewood

Description

Charming little Charles X period empty pocket table, in rosewood, marquetry and light wood fillets. The top forming a bowl, presence of a drawer without key and closed in belt, it rests on 4 curved legs ending with brass casters. Well preserved for its age, I note small jumps of veneer in places, missing two inlaid plates at the level of the central spacer. Width: 61cm Depth: 40cm Height: 70cm
