Description

Superb chandelier in glass paste and bronze with 7 lights, Art Deco period, signed Muller Frères in Lunéville. Chiseled bronze. Six tulips and a central shell. Glassware in shades of orange to purple. Very beautiful decoration typical of 1925. Ceiling light in the shape of a bouquet of stylized flowers which tightens forming a tassel imitating the trimmings from which the 6 arms of light depart. Between each arm are balusters in the shape of daffodils. Fine and very ornate chiseling of the bronze. The shell is supported by an ornate frame ending in a tassel imitating the typical Art Deco trimmings. Old but working electricity. Very good general condition. All the tulips are signed in the paste as well as the obush: 83 cmd: 53 cm. Tulip: h: 15.4 cm d: 8.5 cm. Shell h: 15.4 cm d: 14 cm.
