Description

Wrought iron iron with ingot - 18th century Complete iron, presence of its ingot. Its originality lies in its decoration, both at the feet of the columns and the door hook. Each column is turned in the lower part, at the foot of each a brass rosette completes the decoration. The door is equipped with a closing ring (and grip). The closing hook is guilloché. Object in perfect condition, no lack, only the hook fixing screw is changed and the wooden handle seems later. See the detailed photos which are more telling than any text.
