Description

Wrought iron iron with ingot - 18th century
Complete iron, its ingot present. Its originality lies in its decoration at the level of the feet of the handle supports and the uprights which are guilloché. Each handle support is of square section. The wooden part seems to be later (fixed by 2 recent bolts). Object in good condition, no missing parts. See the detailed photos which are more telling than any text.
