Description

Charming pair of earthenware flower pots, made in the first half of the 18th century in Lille. Each piece, whose shape imitates a basket, is decorated on all sides in the Dutch style in a deep blue.

Chips are visible and not restored, the grid was modified a long time ago to hold the flowers, but the decoration is integrated, very fresh, and the pieces are not cracked (it is very solid earthenware). Your tulips will look great presented like this.
