Description

Pair of armchairs also called arm chairs in waxed natural wood. Each armchair rests on four square-section legs all connected by straight crotch bars. The backrest is short and inclined outwards. The seat was redone a few years ago, the webbing is in very good condition (see photo 12). The covering fabric is in house condition, it is very correct but has some small pulled points on the backrests (see photo 11). These two seats were made in the 19th century in an already older wood, one of the seats has a joint on one of the rear legs (see photo 10).
