Description

This is a rough work, probably for a public commission, it is a preparatory work. Everything was modeled by hand, we can still feel the artist's hand. For the condition, we note that the woman's arms and head are missing, we note traces of wear due to use, shocks. Charles Filleul (1853-1907), French sculptor of busts and figures, student of Cavelier and A. Millet, member of the French Artists, he obtained an honorable mention in 1887. Our photos allow you to appreciate the quality of the object. For the condition, please detail the photos. Do not hesitate to zoom. The photos are an integral part of the description.
