Description

Lovely Small Chiffonnier in Louis XVI style, made of solid Mahogany and Mahogany Veneer. Its top consists of white Carrara marble, surrounded by a brass gallery with an openwork overhang. In the upper part, this piece of furniture opens on the front with four identical drawers, called "crowned", with a slightly molded frame. Each of them is equipped with a Louis XVI bronze entry, with original lock in working order. The lower part has doors composed on the front of small grooved and vertical mahogany elements. They are equipped with a working lock with key and open onto an interior lined with a shelf. The solid mahogany uprights are lined with wide, stopped grooves and end with a small, turned spindle foot ending with a brass shoe. The modest dimensions and storage facilities offered
