Description

Designed in the early 20th century, this elegant mahogany side table embodies the charm and refinement of the Retour d'Egypte style. It features a circular sea green marble top, providing a smooth and luxurious surface for displaying your favorite decorative objects. This top is encircled by an ornate beaded gilt bronze cord. The belt is decorated with palmette and fleurette trim. This side table rests on four quadrangular uprights, ending in gilt feet, joined by a round plinth base. The base is held by convex feet decorated with palmettes. This side table is ideal for adding a touch of prestige to your living room, office or any other room in your home. Period: Early 20th century
