

Large Famille Rose Wine Cooler - China 18th Century Qianlong Period

1 600 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Diameter : 19,2cm

Height : 18,5cm

Description

An important Rose Famille enamelled porcelain wine cooler. The body is decorated with flowers, notably peonies, as well as bamboo branches and various flowers. The neck of the cooler is decorated with a frieze that repeats the decoration on the body, against a background of brown enamel motifs. On either side are two shell-shaped handles. China XVIII

Early Qianlong period (1736-1795) This wine cooler is particularly large, contrary to the models regularly seen, and could almost be used as a cache pot. Height: 18.5cm Diameter at neck: 19.2cm Diameter at base: 19.4cm For an identical silver mounted model, see : - Metropolitan Museum of Art, 2004.520a, b Excellent overall condition, with minor enamel loss and some chipping and sintering to the handles, some firing

Dealer

Galerie Drake

Chinese Porcelain & Chinese Works of Art

Mobile : 0689483023

32 Avenue de la République

Paris 75011

cracks under the handles, some scratches to the enamel in places. More information and photos on request.