Description

Bronze with antique green patina. Signed. This sculptor worked mainly in Osaka, contributing to the reconstruction of the city after 1945, to adorn it with monuments. The most famous is "The Goddess of Peace" in 1950. He had a very Art Deco style until the 1950s, then gradually elongated, towards abstraction. His works in general, according to him, evoke an invisible presence that transcends humans and embodies the religious theme of "divine revelation". Weight 1.7 kg.
