Description

Belgium / 1910 / Display Cabinet / wood, glass / Art Nouveau / Arts and Crafts / Jugenstil

Art Nouveau display cabinet or bookcase in oak. Crafted in the early 20th century in Belgium. The lower part has two carved doors with beautiful hardware and one shelf behind. Above two drawers with ample storage space. The higher part of the cabinet has two glass doors, on the left side one shelf and on the right side two shelves, that gives this cabinet a nice playful touch. The cabinet is beautifully decorated with bas-relief carved scrollwork and has Art Nouveau style bail & loop handles and hardware in copper. The doors have their original keys, the drawers have no keys. This exquisite piece was professionally restored.
