Description

Elegant pair of small perfume bottles in white porcelain, decorated with gold details and painted in a refined burgundy color. On each side of the bottles and on the cap there are floral decorations depicting four different types of plants and flowers, giving further elegance to these objects. In good condition, they are able to furnish any environment with taste and class. Manufactured in Limoges (France), as attested by the signature on the bottom, in the "old Paris" style of the early 19th century.
