Description

Pair of vases. Glazed porcelain. 19th century. Pair of circular vases with a cylindrical body in the center and a long neck and an outward-opening mouth, decorated with bands in pink tones, gilded edges, grouped flowers and two genre scenes (humble figures dancing in rural landscapes; on the other side, similar scenes). They are presented resting on metal feet, decorated with openwork elements and claw-like legs ending in plant elements of classicist influence. They bear marks on the base. - Dimensions: 24x24x62 cm
