Description

Lovely dining room table from the first part of the 19th century, William IV period, in solid mahogany. Rectangular top with rounded corners in solid mahogany with a fluted edge with a superb flame. The top and the extensions are in solid mahogany. The frieze runs the entire length of the table, giving it a beautiful line with the extensions. It rests on 4 solid mahogany carved legs ending with casters. The table has two extensions. Very beautiful original patina and in superb condition. Delivery in Belgium, France and internationally. Visible in our showroom located at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos on request.
