Description

Persian carpet Malayer Mishan, 118x112.5 cm, early 20th century. Ancient Persian carpet from the village of Mishan south of Malayer in Persia. Elegant square-shaped carpet that stands out for its beautiful black central medallion with geometric decorations, framed by three levels of colored borders and embellished with floral designs. The background of this carpet is beige, like many of the carpets of this type, but the intense black, the turquoise of the square and the red of the decorations stand out, making this carpet a very interesting example.
