

Two Fragments Of Coptic Clavii - Geometric Motifs - Quadruped & Owl - 4th-5th Century

750 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Linen

Length : 34

Width : 7

Description

Two Fragments of Coptic "clavii". The shorter one has geometric patterns and quadrupeds in medallions. Work from the 5th century AD Linen and wool 30x6cm The longer one is composed of geometric patterns, stylized bird heads and dozens of circles. At the ends, a red circle surrounded by stylized bird heads and at the bottom an owl. Work from the 4th century AD. 34x7cm The fragments have been affixed to a modern linen fabric. In a modern frame. Former collection of the Basque country. See similar examples at the Louvre Museum Bibliography LORQUIN (Alexandra). - Coptic fabrics at the National Museum of the Middle Ages: catalog of Egyptian linen and wool fabrics from Late Antiquity to the first centuries of Islam. - Paris: Réunion des musées nationaux, 1922. - 395 p. :

Dealer

Wulfila Antiquités

Haute époque - Archéologie - Curiosités

Tel : 06 23 13 04 02

5 rue de l'Hôtel de Ville

Réalmont 81120

ill. ; 27 cm. Cluny [Usual] (no. 148, p. 332)