Description

Antique carved wooden statuette representing the Asian god of happiness and prosperity. This handcrafted piece, probably made by a folk carver, reflects the Asian provincial style and possesses the charm of naive art. The god is depicted with his traditional attributes, including a full basket, a symbol of wealth and abundance. The texture of the wood and the simple yet expressive details give this work a strong spiritual and decorative presence. Origin: Asia
Dimensions: 17 × 38 × 16 cm
