Description

A remarkable frog seated on a mushroom, intently focused on sewing a tiny pair of trousers.An exquisitely charming scene, typical of anthropomorphic Viennese bronzes produced in the late 19th century by the Bergmann workshop (marked with the amphora "B" stamp).Cast in cold-painted polychrome bronze, this whimsical miniature shows some light wear to the paint, consistent with age, but without compromising the fine quality of the work.Viennese work circa 1900
