

Ceramic Painting With Enamels From Longwy, Château De Lassay In Mayenne By Maurice Paul Chev

270 EUR

Signature : Maurice Paul Chevallier et émaux de Longwy

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Ceramic

Length : 31

Width : 23

Description

Ceramic panel or plaque from Longwy enamels circa 1950 depicting the Château de Lassay in Mayenne. Decor by Maurice Paul Chevallier*. Original frame. Another painting in Longwy enamels depicting the port of Audierne and its castle, by Paul Mignon, is also currently for sale. The plaque alone measures 24cm x 16cm. Delivery possible by Chronopost without risk of breakage for: France EUR30 Europe EUR50 Others EUR80*Maurice-Paul Chevallier (1892-1987) was head decorator for the Longwy factory from April 1925 until September 30, 1972. There he created the famous ball vases such as the "Boule coloniale" which won an award at the 1931 Colonial Exhibition or the "Vase boule Atlas". His signature is one of the most sought-after in Longwy.

Dealer

A Brocantique

Antique dealer, Asian and world antiquities

Tel : 0297253637

Mobile : 0664293786

19 rue de la motte

Pontivy 56300