Description

This sofa is a magnificent example of burl mahogany furniture, inspired by the Biedermeier style. It is dressed in a studded lime green fabric, adding a touch of color and texture to the whole. The wide armrests are engraved on the front with revisited palmette motifs, offering a unique and elegant aesthetic. The poufs slide under these armrests, adding a practical and discreet functionality. The back of the sofa is particularly eventful, creating a dynamic and attractive silhouette. The whole rests on small, sleek legs, completing the refined design of this piece of furniture. Biedermeier: The Biedermeier style is an artistic and cultural movement that emerged in Central Europe, mainly in Germany and Austria, between 1815 and 1848. This style is characterized by its simplicity, elegance and
