Académie de France in Rome during the Occupation and became curator of the Musée Jacquemart-André after the Liberation. While Robert Pougheon is known for his ambitious compositions in a Mannerist vein of Art Deco, his floral representations are more intimate. Like 17th-century vanitas, time seems suspended in the evanescence of the elements. In restricted chromatic ranges, the artist simplifies forms and seeks the essential. Observing the contemplative mystery of nature, Robert Pougheon sublimates the poetry of the passing of time. Learn more: I am at your disposal for any further information.
