Description

Dora MAAR (1907 - 1997), French artist and photographer. Abstract composition. Original drawing. Indian ink and gouache on paper. Stamp of the estate sale in 1998 lower right. Dimensions: 18 x 24 cm. Dora Maar abandoned photography for painting under the influence of Picasso. After her separation, she took up painting as an outlet, navigating between depression and mysticism. Her artistic work remained unknown until the posthumous sale, organized in 1998 and 1999, which revealed a very personal production that had never left her studio.
