Description

Art Deco - Art Deco Period
Superb opening cuff bracelet in 18K rose gold, with gadrooned decoration and buckle motif set with half-cultured pearls
This rigid bracelet, typical of the 1930s, perfectly embodies the sober and structured elegance of the Art Deco period. This is an opening cuff bracelet in 18K rose gold (rhino hallmark), entirely decorated with regular gadroons and enhanced in its center with an elegant stylized buckle motif. The latter is delicately set with half-cultured pearls, in a sober but refined spirit. The piece is equipped with its original safety chain, and presents a superb state of preservation. Gross weight: 31.2 g French work circa 1930 - Art Deco period. A rare and unique piece, perfect for a collection, or to wear as a characterful jewel on bare skin or a gloved
