3 235 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

This exquisite 18Kt gold brooch is a stunning piece of jewelry that combines vibrant enamel work with the elegance of diamonds. The brooch features a multi-colored enamel floral spray design, with five beautifully detailed flowers: two blue, one green, one white, and one yellow. Each flower is adorned with a brilliant-cut diamond at its center, each approximately 0.10 carats, adding a touch of sparkle and luxury to the piece. The brooch is crafted from 18Kt gold, as indicated by the "750" stamp, although this mark is slightly rubbed. Weighing 13.1 grams, it has a substantial feel, reflecting its quality craftsmanship and the precious materials used. For added security, the brooch is equipped with a gold pin and a rollover safety catch, ensuring it stays securely fastened when worn. This piece is perfect for anyone
