constantly represented in his canvases with canals, monuments and splendid views of the lagoon. With great skill, inspired by French painting of the late 19th century, he represented the views of the city under a twilight vision. Painter of light, the reflections of the sky in the water are of great dexterity and realism. Later, Duprat also moved to Paris where he chose to paint the Seine and its bridges, where his extraordinary ability to represent the reflections of light on the water, is expressed in wider and brighter panoramas. Museums: Aix en Provence, Brest, Laval Sold with Invoice and Certificate. Painting visible at our gallery in L'Isle sur la Sorgue (France), on weekends. Free shipping for France. And on estimate for abroad
