Description

Frame in burgundy-colored paper, treated to imitate leather, with gold embellishments impressed using traditional artisan tools. On the back, the name of the craftsman who made it, Luigi Angeli of Rome, between the late 19th and early 20th centuries. The period is indicated by the photographic format of 10x20 cm, not very common,  a size mainly developed between the two previous centuries. Some small imperfections skillfully concealed by a restoration, see the last two photos.
