Description

Rare and exceptional large thick Imari porcelain planter with a pretty belt movement and resting on four generous feet decorated in blue on a white background. This entire piece is carefully decorated, with a rare and beautiful finesse of stylized and very skillful patterns, the polychromy of blue, red and gold on a white background is remarkable, as much as the dexterity of the design of an absolute and very decorative graphic design. A successful and preserved piece from Asia in good condition and very decorative, planters are not as common as plates because they are subjected to harsher treatment. This piece has strong decorative power and furnishes a decor, while bringing in the singularity its touch of preciousness, a truly beautiful piece from China for our greatest
