Description

Henri PRIVAT-LIVEMONT (Schaerbeek (Belgium), 1861- idem, 1936) Roses 1903
Lithograph 40x30 cm (subject) / 59.5x49.5 cm (framed) Signed lower left "Privat / Livemont / 1903" Dry stamp lower right partially covered by the mat --- The composition of this lithograph represents 3 roses seen in close-up against a bucolic landscape background, mixing a bed of white flowers and, in the background, some silhouettes of bluish trees. The choice of motifs taken from nature as well as their highly stylized treatment are both fully in line with the artistic movement of Art Nouveau, very fashionable at the beginning of the 20th century, and of which Henri Privat-Livemont (1861-1936) was one of the greatest representatives in Belgium, which earned him the nickname "the Belgian Mucha".
