Description

This original oil on canvas painting portrays the harbor of Cadaqués, a historic town on the Costa Brava in northeastern Spain. Depicted are moored fishing boats and the town's distinctive whitewashed architecture, rendered in soft pastel tones and earthy hues. The artist uses a textural impasto technique and loose impressionist brushwork to evoke the Mediterranean light and atmosphere of the region. The painting is signed in the lower right corner, though the artist's identity remains unconfirmed. The work is presented in a high-quality frame and is in good condition (very small bit of paint loss as shown in main photo front top part of foreground boat) Packing, Shipping and insurance from Barcelona calculated at checkout. UK, EU, USA & Canada: EUR290 For all other destinations
