Description

Very fresh with bright colors, these plates are typically in the style of the Moulin des Loups & Hamage Nord factory, whose stamp they bear on the back. They are from the 1930s in porcelain with raised edges suggesting basketwork, its central decoration is a transferred image of a basket of abundance with fruit. The "Moulin des Loups & Hamage Nord" factory comes from Saint Amand at the beginning of the 19th century and has undergone many changes of names and factories over the years.
