Description

Pair of Louis XVI style two-light candlesticks mounted as lamps. In bronze on a square white marble base mounted on four spinning feet supporting a quiver-shaped shaft, flanked by two scrolling branches decorated with acanthus leaves and vine branches and topped with a socket and its basin decorated with pearls and stylized water leaves. Late 19th century. Topped with an oval shade with a gray background decorated with two medallions of linen printed with a bird on a flowering branch - blue background with grisaille decorations, highlighted with chocolate soutache. Electrification completely revised, wire, plug and bipolar switch in gold color, E14 screw socket. The electric wire passes outside the candlestick. Protective varnish on the bronze. Some manufacturing defects, wear and small shocks.
