Description

Very beautiful in colored fractal resin by Pierre Giraudon from the 60s and 70s. Unique piece by this creative artist and precursor of this unique and innovative technique. He was one of the first artists to develop this very particular and luminous technique thanks to high temperature firing and numerous successive polishings. We are in the presence of a very beautiful lamp with a predominantly blue color and its original lampshade, which is very rare. Magnificent collector's item and which can also be a very decorative lamp in a connoisseur's interior.
