

Tournai - Soft Porcelain Box From Tournai With Polychrome Decoration - 18th Century

8 000 EUR

Signature : Meyer

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Length : 9,5 cm

Width : 5,2 cm

Height : 4 cm

Description

Oblong box in soft Tournai porcelain decorated in polychromy on four sides with scenes of people in the foreground of river landscapes, with parts of cities on the horizon in faded light. The inside of the lid shows in full, a cupid caressing the hand of Venus, which is lying down, seen from behind, tasting the scent of some flowers. Clouds in the background, large fabric floating through the scene and two doves at the bottom. Inspired by a composition by Boucher. Painting by Meyer. Silver mount. Reference: Florilège de Porcelaines de Tournai by Lucien Delplace, P. 76/77; Edition Casterman. Origin: Tournai. Period: 3rd Period - 18th. Dimensions: Length: 9.5 cm; Width: 5.2 cm; Height: 4 cm. Conditions: Very good condition. Provenance: Emmanuel Motte Collection, Paris; Belgian private collection.

Dealer

Galerie Raoul Dutilleul

Arts Asiatiques et Porcelaines de Tournai

Mobile : +32 474 472 168

24,Rue des Chapeliers

Tournai 7500