Description

Jan Abel WASSENBERGH (1689-1750) "The Continnence of Scipio" Oil on canvas, signed lower center 92 x 107 cm unframed 99 cm x 114 cm framed (small old restorations) Jan Abel Wassenbergh (January 18, 1689, Groningen - circa July 20, 1750, Groningen), was an 18th-century painter from the Dutch Republic. According to Jan van Gool and the RKD, he first studied law, then took drawing lessons from Jan van Dieren (of whom Van Gool had never heard). Buoyed by his success, Wassenbergh went to Rotterdam in 1712 where he became a pupil of Adriaen van der Werff. Many of his interior decorations still survive in their original installations. Their daughter Elisabet Geertruda and son Jan Jr followed their father, while their daughter Gertruida Abelia excelled in fruit and
