Description

Delightful painting with the Virgin holding and embracing the naked Child,while tenderly turning her gaze to the young Saint John. The composition, entirely played on the foreground, is resolved in a pyramidal layout in which the color emphasizes the spaces and, in the beautiful shadesof blue, flesh pink and brown combined in very pleasant chromatic accords, contributesto giving the sacred scene a further sense of delicate sweetness.In the work we can see elements that take inspiration from sixteenth-century models.The work is in perfect state of conservation. Non-period frame.Origin Lombardy, second half of the 18th century.Canvas dimensions cm. 64 x 46.5
