artisans, guided by their ancestral knowledge, create these unique pieces without a pre-established pattern, allowing their creativity to flourish. The classic, geometric, and straight motifs are characteristic of these rugs. They bear witness to Persian history and culture. This rug is more than just an object; it is a legacy that embodies the soul of ancient Persia. Note: The rug has a few small holes, which can be easily restored or preserved to maintain its authenticity. Contact me for more information and terms of sale.
