

Brooch Set With Hematites And Pearls Late 19th Century

130 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Length : 4 cm

Description

Charming little brooch in hematite and set with small pearls from the late 19th century. The setting is in low-grade gold (14k hallmark very poorly struck and worn on the pin). The setting of both the pearls and the hematites is very neat. A little jewel with fin-de-siècle charm, with a particular shine given by the metallic-toned cabochons.
