Description

Pair of ornamental baluster-shaped vases in Paris porcelain, swan handles. Empire style and Restoration period work - early 19th century, 1830s. Beautiful scene decoration on the theme of horse riding, in the style of Carle Vernet in a gilded frame on the front and Italian landscapes on the back. Very beautiful gilding in matte and shiny on the entire vase. Quite large refined model, they can complete a garnish on a piece of furniture or fireplace. Our vases are in good condition, very fresh gilding and remarkably preserved. A bust handle glued very discreetly. No missing parts. Height: 25.1cm
