Description

China has a long and distinguished artistic tradition of carpet making, dating back to the 15th century. Originally, designs and motifs were inspired by Chinese culture : porcelain, landscapes, majestic dragons, and religious symbols. Chinese carpet patterns are generally cut in relief, giving them their famous three-dimensional appearance. Precisely woven using high-quality wool, the rug feels luxurious underfoot and is very soft. Size : 350 x 260 cm Condition : Wool shows signs of wear over time. Fringes restored on one side; the other side is very short. Slight table leg marks are visible; the central medallion has minor soiling. *Video available upon request *PRICE REDUCED MY COMPLETE GALLERY
