Description

Large oak bar counter, late 19th century, with a pewter top. The back of the bar has a large pewter track and an integrated copper sink. The two gargoyle head taps are bronze. The bar has one side with a rounded angle, and the other with a right angle. Two brass bars on the front for holding onto. The back opens with 5 insulated doors and a coin drawer. There is even the old ice cube tray that keeps things cold. The bar is ready to be connected to the drain and water. A lot of character for this antique piece of furniture.
Dimensions: 268 cm long x 66 cm deep x 113 cm high
