Size: 53 x 63 cm Bernard Charoy is a French artist born in 1931, known for his remarkable contributions to painting and sculpture. He studied at the prestigious École des Beaux-Arts in Paris, where he developed a unique style combining vibrant colors, abstraction and figuration. While Charoy's work shares a certain emotional depth and use of color with artists like Marc Chagall, his style is distinguished by its emphasis on geometric abstraction and dynamic compositions, influenced by the modernist movements of the 20th century.
