Description

Double-walled glass goblet with a battle scene decoration, in gold leaf between the two walls. Second half of the 18th century. Goblet with 19 facets. Genuine zwischengoldglas made of two calibrated goblets that fit together, with the gold leaf decoration cut and chiseled between the two walls. The top and bottom friezes as well as the bottom are enhanced with a red background. Battle scene of horsemen. Signed: "O. PURSCH 50" ? Very good condition. Weight: 210g (the dark color of the photos is due to the coffee to bring out the decoration)
