Description

Important antique breastplate necklace in the shape of a pectoral, originating from Tibet or Ladakh. Very beautiful work of assembly of colors and semi-precious stones; Mixture of turquoise, coral beads, five large carnelians mounted on copper. Garnet and white glass beads. The base of the support is made of a dark brown linen mattress. A central piece set with turquoise creates a very beautiful pattern in the center of the necklace. Very good general condition, with traces of antiquity. This is an authentic object from the end of the 19th century to the beginning of the 20th century.

DIMENSIONS: Height: 38 cm - Width: 37.5 cm - weight 1046 grs The last photo shows a woman from Lhasa, adorned with her traditional costume, and her precious stones, turquoise, coral, pearls
